Our In The Pink event is back with a bang and this year is going to be absolutely amazing. In The Pink has been running for 10 years and this year we want to celebrate. To date In The Pink has raised £8,683 for Breast Cancer Research UK which is a massive achievement and we really couldn't have done that without the help and support of all our dancers over the past 10 years. Thank you one and all.

So let's see what we can raise this year! Our guest choreographer is the one and only Alan Birchall, who you may remember from In The Pink 2004 as he wore a lovely gorilla suit, pink wig and a pink bra!!

We will certainly have plenty of fun at this year's event, but let's not forget the reasons we do what we do. The shocking fact is that 1 in 3 people in the UK are affected by cancer every year and it's not just women that get breast cancer, men can too. Breast Cancer Research UK is striving forward to find cures everyday and more and more is being done in the fight against cancer, but they don't get any government backing or public money. All of their funding comes directly from donations.

TELL ME MORE...

So when is this spectacular event... Saturday 1st October 2011 at Failand Village Hall. Doors will open at 12noon and close at 12midnight. There will be a 1 hour break from 6pm to 7pm when we redecorate for the evening social. Our Crazy Gang Cafe will be there all day serving tea, coffee, soft drinks and a selection of home baked cakes. Not forgetting there will be a pink themed raffle and all the request social dancing you can think of!
